

State of Idaho Employee Discount for Morrison Center Shows

Michael Flatley's name is synonymous with the wave of Celtic dance mania that began sweeping the world in the mid-1990s and has continued to grow steadily ever since. He is the American-born dance pioneer who created Lord of the Dance - the most popular touring dance production in history. The youngest son of Irish parents who immigrated to the U.S. after WWII, Flatley spent much of his childhood in their native Ireland, where he developed an affinity for the traditional form of Celtic dance. It is this form of dance that Flatley combined with ultramodern techniques and a synergistic blend of other styles to create Lord of the Dance. Recognized as the guiding force that helped catapult Irish dancing into the global spotlight, Flatley conceived and choreographed the theatrical extravaganza that has been seen by more than 50 million people worldwide at sold out theaters, arenas and stadiums. He originated the role of the Lord, and presently serves as the show's artistic director. Michael Flatley, who originated the role of the Lord, serves as the artistic director and continues to oversee all aspects of the production. The first American to win the All-World Championship in Irish Dance, Flatley opened the show in Dublin in 1996. "Our goal is to take the audience on a wondrous adventure that will ignite their minds and souls," said Flatley. "We've combined traditional and modern forms of dance to create a high octane blend with soulful beats and feet that move too fast to comprehend."

SEE LORD OF THE DANCE THURSDAY, JANUARY 20, 2005 AT 7:30 PM!

Deadline to order: December 12, 2004

"A comical invention, the human race, any way you look at it." In Mark Twain Tonight! Five-time Emmy winner Hal Holbrook (Evening Shade) literally resurrects the famous American writer, humorist, lecturer and world traveler. He effortlessly and most convincingly slips into the skin of Samuel Langhorne Clemens (1835-1910), a.k.a. Mark Twain. In Mark Twain Tonight!, Twain's vision of the human race remains as comic, and as dark, as ever. Your conclusion, as you laugh your way to the evening's end, is inescapable. Mark Twain Tonight! is a treasure of the American theater, any way you look at it.

SEE HAL HOLBROOK IN MARK TWAIN TONIGHT! FRIDAY, MAY 13, 2005 AT 8:00 PM!

Deadline to order: December 12, 2004

To take advantage of this offer:

1. Visit our website at www.broadwayacrossamerica.com/groupsales
2. Enter your exclusive password: STATEOFIDAHO
3. Follow prompts to fill in required information to complete your order
4. You will receive your tickets in the mail at least one week prior to the show date. Watch your email for future offers which will include other touring Broadway shows coming to Boise soon! Thank you for your purchase and enjoy the show!